

AMPHITHEATER ANFITEATRO

Mahdi Ali Ali | Qatar | 2019 |
16:00 | Arabic | Color |
Ficción |

Tras un repentino desacuerdo, una chica Qatari huye de su padre controlador durante un día familiar.

Following a sudden disagreement, a Qatari girl runs away from her controlling father during a family day out.

GUIÓN SCREENPLAY Mahdi Ali Ali FOTOGRAFÍA PHOTOGRAPHY - MÚSICA MUSIC - SONIDO SOUND - MONTAJE EDITION - ACTORES ACTORS Abdulla Ghaifan, Sana Al Habib, Gianina Panameno, Kholood Ahmed, Noor Deeb, Zoya PRODUCCIÓN PRODUCTION Basel Owies CONTACTO CONTACT festivalsubmissions@dohafilminstitute.com

MAHDI ALI ALI

Mahdi Ali Ali es un cineasta qatari a cargo del Departamento de Formación y Educación del Instituto de Cine de Doha. A lo largo de los años, ha trabajado con éxito con los principales actores de la industria para proporcionar a los cineastas de Qatar iniciativas de aprendizaje integral. Mahdi ha contribuido como productor ejecutivo y supervisor en más de 30 cortometrajes producidos por el Instituto. Tiene un MFA de EICAR, la Escuela Internacional de Cine de París, y ha realizado cortometrajes como Champs Elysées, I Love You (2009) y The Gulf Habibi

(2011), así como otros cortometrajes para Al Jazeera Documentary y Al Jazeera Children's Channels.

Mahdi Ali Ali is a Qatari filmmaker in charge of the Training and Education Department at the Doha Film Institute. Through the years, he has successfully worked with major industry players in providing filmmakers in Qatar with comprehensive learning initiatives. Mahdi has contributed as Executive Producer and supervisor on more than 30 short films produced by the Institute. He holds an MFA from EICAR, the International Film School of Paris, and has made short films including Champs Elysées, I Love You (2009) and The Gulf Habibi (2011), as well as other shorts for Al Jazeera Documentary and Al Jazeera Children's Channels.