

Hijos de la Tierra es el testimonio de personas vinculadas con la naturaleza que abren su corazón para transmitir a la humanidad la sabiduría que atesora la Madre Tierra.

Chamanes, druidas y herboleros muestran el planeta como una farmacia viva que debemos preservar.

Sons of the of Earth is the testimony of people connected to nature who open their hearts to convey to mankind the wisdom that holds Mother Earth.

This documentary wants to serve as a means of transmission for this wise knowledge and aware the viewer what it means to be a Son of the Earth.

Materialism and stress to which we are subjected in our society today prevents us to go in search of consciousness, moving us away from nature.

We live turning our backs to it without realizing that we are exploiting it voraciously.

Our planet is a source of life and therefore requires preserve.
